ANNUAL REPORT OF THE
SCHOOL COMMITTEE.

Fellow Citizens:

In presenting this report, your committee labors under the disadvantage of having had no previous knowledge of the schools of the town, and is therefore unable to speak of the past year in comparison with former years. There is no reason to doubt, however, that the usual standard has been kept up. Eight schools have been sustained, in most of which the results have been very satisfactory. The teachers have generally proved efficient, though in some instances more energy was needed. Two of the teachers were beginners; but in the case of Miss Pearson the beginning was promising. Her school was not simply kept, but taught. All the others have had some experience, and, what is more to the point, several have had previous experience in the same school. Three, five, and, in one instance, fourteen terms have been taught by the same person in the same school. This is as it should be, as the results clearly show. A good teacher should be retained as long as possible.

Changes are generally disastrous, even though just as good teachers are secured. The pupils have with few exceptions been studious and obedient, and made good progress. The statistics of the different schools may be found in the accompanying table.

The schools in No. 7 are conducted under the provisions of the Somersworth act. The past year has been especially gratifying and successful. Of the primary department, nothing better could be said than that it is still under the care of Miss Stone. Fifty small scholars, under perfect discipline, giving distinct and accurate answers to nearly every question, is a state of things almost above praise. The grammar school showed rapid advancement, under the firm and thorough management of Miss Gage and Mr. Emery.

But while the schools for the past year may have been up to the usual standard, many things need to be improved. Some of our school-rooms are cheerless and unhealthy, needing immediate repairs. There is also a great lack of school furniture. No room has a globe, and but one has a reasonable supply of outline maps or blackboards. This is false economy. Teachers are expensive, and we cannot afford to let them use poor tools.

It is highly important, also, that good teachers should be secured. Prudential committees should go after the best service, and not wait for it to be offered. Then let teachers be looked after. Teachers should be watched the most carefully of any in our employ, for they do our most important work. We are gratified to notice many instances of this kind, but let there be more of it. A certain kind of visit, indulged in at No. 4 last summer, should be dispensed with. N. H. Laws have a bearing upon such cases. Another important matter is that of text-books. The lack of uniformity in this matter is entirely inexcusable;—e. g., there are in use no less than five different series of geographies. Of course, one of them is the best, and that alone should be used. In other branches there is a similar diversity. This increases the number of classes, creates confusion, and hinders the progress of the schools. It should be remedied at once.

It is also to be desired that the schools should commence at nearly the same date, so that there may be a public examination of teachers. The examination of all could then be secured in the time now given to one, and in a much more satisfactory manner.

It is hoped that the citizens of the town will appreciate the importance of making our schools efficient, and that they will coöperate in all efforts for their improvement.

Respectfully submitted.

M. D. BISBEE,
School Committee.
